Dear Taxpayer:

We accepted your offer to pay your monthly installment payments by automatic deductions from your checking account. We'll deduct your payment of $520.00 on the 28th of each month.

What you need to know about your installment agreement

What you need to do

You must meet all conditions of your installment agreement. If you don't, we can cancel it and take enforcement action to collect the full amount of the tax liability. Enforcement action could include filing a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (which notifies your creditors of our lien against your property) or placing a levy on your wages or bank accounts. If we cancel your Installment Agreement and you later apply for and receive reinstatement, you'll have to pay a reinstatement fee.

The other conditions of this agreement are:

- You will pay on time all federal taxes that become due during the term of this agreement.
- You will file on time all federal and state tax returns due during the term of this agreement.
- We'll apply all installment agreement payments to the oldest tax assessments first, then penalties, then interest on that assessment.
- You pay all installment agreement user fees.
- You provide a current financial statement when we request one. If you have a change in your ability to pay, we can revise or cancel your installment agreement.

If you send payments by mail, make your check payable to the United
