Case Closed – Currently Not Collectible

Why we're sending you this letter

We temporarily closed your collection case for the tax types and periods below. We determined you don't have the ability to pay the amount(s) you owe at this time.

Tax Type	Tax Period Ending	Tax Type	Tax Period Ending	Tax Type	Tax Period Ending
1040	12/31/2014	SRP	12/31/2014	1040	12/31/2015
1040	12/31/2016	1040	12/31/2017	1040	12/31/2018
1040	12/31/2019	1040	12/31/2020

What you need to do

You don't need to take any action at this time. Be sure to:

- File all future tax returns and pay any amount(s) you owe on time.
- Consider making voluntary payments toward the amount(s) you owe, when possible, to minimize additional interest and applicable penalties.

What you need to know

Although we temporarily closed your case for collections, you still owe the IRS an amount(s). We may re-open your case in the future if your financial situation improves. Because you still owe the IRS an amount(s), we'll continue to add applicable penalties and interest to your account and we can make other adjustments and offsets, such as applying future federal tax refunds to the amount(s) you owe. Additionally, your state tax refunds may be subject to levy under the State Income Tax Levy program (SITLP). Furthermore, if your case is re-opened, the IRS will notify you to resolve your federal tax debts. If your federal tax debts are not resolved after repeated notifications, the IRS could issue a levy or file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien or potentially certify you to the Department of State for denial or revocation of passport. For more information visit www.irs.gov and search Revocation or Denial of Passport in Case of Certain Unpaid Taxes.

You owe a shared responsibility payment(SRP) because one or more members of your tax household didn't have minimum essential health coverage or qualify for an exemption from coverage, per Internal Revenue Code Section 5000A. The SRP amount that you owe is not subject to a Notice of Federal Tax Lien filing, a levy on your property, or the failure - to - pay penalty. However, we charge interest on unpaid SRP balances. We may also apply your future federal tax refunds to the SRP balance until it is paid in full.
