Re:

Offer in Compromise

Dear Taxpayer:

We applied a total of $422.60 as payment toward the accepted offer amount listed on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise. We received the last payment on 04/20/2015 in the amount of $172.60.

Please note that the conditions of the offer require you to file and pay all required taxes for five tax years, beginning from the date of this letter.

If you are required to make payments under this agreement, make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury and send it to:

IRS - OIC
P.O. Box 24015
Fresno, CA 93779

You must promptly notify the IRS of any change in your address or marital status. That way we'll have the correct address to advise you of your offer status.

If you submitted a joint offer with your spouse or former spouse and you personally are meeting or have met all the conditions of your offer agreement, but your spouse or former spouse fails to adhere to the conditions of the offer agreement, your offer agreement will not be defaulted.

If you fail to meet any of the terms and conditions of the offer, the IRS will issue a notice to default the agreement. If the offer defaults, the original tax including all penalties and interest will be due. After issuance of the notice the IRS may:

- Immediately file suit to collect the entire unpaid balance of the offer.
- Immediately file suit to collect an amount equal to the original amount of the tax liability as liquidating damages, minus any payments already received under the terms of this offer.
- Disregard the amount of the offer and apply all amounts already paid under the offer against the original amount of the tax liability.
- File suit or levy to collect the original amount of the tax liability.

Please remember that as a condition of the offer, we'll retain any refunds you may be entitled to receive for 2015, or earlier tax years. This includes refunds you receive in 2016 for any overpayments you made toward tax year 2015, or earlier tax years. These refunds will be applied to your liability, not to your accepted
