Re: Offer in Settlement
Case No(s): 40066

Dear Mr. H:

This is to confirm that your offer in settlement to resolve the above-referenced case has been accepted for $10,000.00, plus applicable interest. Payment of $500.00 has been received.

In accordance with the terms of the offer (copy enclosed), your offer is to be paid within 90 days of the date of this letter. Interest accrues on the entire accepted amount from the date of this letter until the offered amount is paid and must be paid within 90 days of the date of this letter. Interest accrues at the rate of $1.57 per day.

Your payment of $9,500.00, plus additional interest, should be made payable to the Department of Revenue and mailed to my attention at the address shown below. Failure to pay by the date indicated, or default in any other terms of this agreement, will result in immediate collection action on the entire liability.

Please note that the terms of the offer require you to remain current and up to date on all tax obligations to Kentucky for a period of five years from the date your offer is accepted. The Department of Revenue will also keep any refunds you may be entitled to receive for any tax periods through 2012. This includes refunds you request in 2013 for any overpayments you made in 2012. If you are due a refund and it is not offset and sent to you in error either electronically or by mail, it is your obligation to return that payment to the Department of Revenue. Failure to do so will result in your previously accepted offer being declared in default for failure to adhere to terms of the offer.

If you have any questions or need any additional information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Patricia Lester
