Dear Duane [REDACTED]:

We accepted your offer in compromise signed and dated by you on 06/26/2019 and as modified by an addendum or amended Form 656, Offer in Compromise, dated 05/11/2021. The date of acceptance is the date of this letter and our acceptance is subject to the terms and conditions on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

We applied a total of $2,073.00 as payment toward the accepted offer amount listed on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise. We received the last payment on 07/05/2019 in the amount of $2,073.00.

Please note that the conditions of the offer require you to comply with all provisions of the internal revenue law for five years, beginning from the date of this letter. During this period, which includes any extensions, you must timely file and pay all required taxes.

If you are required to make payments under this agreement, include your name, taxpayer identification number, address, and the tax years covered by this agreement on your check. Make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury and send it to:

IRS - OIC
P.O. Box 24015
Fresno, CA 93779

You must promptly notify the IRS of any change in your address or marital status. That way we'll have the correct address to advise you of your offer status.

If you fail to meet any of the terms and conditions of the offer, the IRS may issue a notice to default the agreement. If the offer defaults, the original tax including all penalties and interest will be due. After issuance of the notice the IRS may:

- Immediately file suit to collect the entire unpaid balance of the offer.
- Immediately file suit to collect an amount equal to the original amount of the tax liability as liquidating damages, minus any payments already received under the terms of this offer.
- Disregard the amount of the offer and apply all amounts already paid under the offer against the original amount of the tax liability.
- File a suit or lien (if not previously filed), or levy to collect the original amount of the tax liability, including interest and penalties, minus any payments already received under the terms of this offer.
